

Hyatt Offers Holiday Packages From Coast to Coast

□ CHICAGO (November 13, 2006) – As one of the busiest travel seasons in years approaches, travelers can find exciting holiday packages at Hyatt Hotels & Resorts across the U.S. These special deals allow guests to indulge in the plentiful offerings at Hyatt properties while enjoying relaxing spa treatments, delicious regional cuisine, adventurous activities, local entertainment and a memorable holiday season.

For the ski-lovers:

Learn how to perfect those skiing skills during Technique Week at Park Hyatt Beaver Creek Resort & Spa in Vail Valley, Colorado. The package starts at $1,850 and includes four nights luxury accommodations, three-day lift ticket, personalized instruction, a performance evaluation, a take-home DVD, credit to the newly renovated Allegria Spa, meals, health club access and much more.

From December 1 through April 15, 2007, Hyatt Regency Lake Tahoe Resort, Spa & Casino offers a VIP ski package with nearby ski resort, Alpine Meadows, starting at $240 per night, which includes deluxe room accommodations, shuttle service, lift tickets, ski valet and access to a no-wait line maximizing time on the slopes.

For a Texas-sized New Year's celebration:

A family getaway at Hyatt Regency Hill Country Resort and Spa near San Antonio starts at $299, which includes one night accommodations for four guests, a Smokehouse BBQ dinner, midnight toasts, family-friendly activities, Camp Hyatt, and spa treatments at Windflower-the Hill Country Spa for the adults, SPAhhhT Youth Spa for the kids and UNDERGROUND for teens. Pre and post nights are available for $139 per night.

Celebrate the new year sweetheart style at Grand Hyatt DFW for $449, which includes deluxe accommodations for the night, dinner for two in the award-winning Grand Met restaurant, live entertainment, champagne toast and New Year's Day brunch.

For the sightseeing gang:

Take Thanksgiving on the road this year, and celebrate in the nation's capital at the newly renovated Park Hyatt Washington. Enjoy the unique flavors of vintage tea from the Tea Cellar, and relish in the largest deluxe guest room in Washington. Add a delicious Thanksgiving meal to your stay by reserving a table for your family at the celebrated Blue Duck Tavern. Those Hyatt guests wishing to do some holiday shopping can have a 2007 Audi A8 L customized by the hotel's designer Tony Chi, transport them to local retail destinations (upon availability). Park Hyatt Washington offers a similar package from November 30 through February 28. Rates start at $349 per night for this package (not including Thanksgiving meal), which also includes a complimentary upgrade to the signature Park Deluxe room and breakfast for two or valet parking.

For warm-weather adventures from the Pacific Ocean to the spa:

Get out of the cold and into sunny San Diego. Grab a friend and take a break from the hustle and bustle of winter with the Grand Escape package at the Manchester Grand Hyatt San Diego. In addition to overnight accommodations, the packages include a variety of outdoor and spa activities including a sail in the San Diego Bay, trip to the world famous San Diego Zoo and two 50minute Swedish massages. Packages cost $395 and are available until December 30, 2006.

For the last-minute holiday shoppers:

Take advantage of an extreme shopping package at one of the following properties: Hyatt Regency Boston, Grand Hyatt Atlanta, Hyatt Vineyard Creek (Santa Rosa, CA), Hyatt Regency San Francisco, Hyatt West Hollywood, Hyatt Fisherman's Wharf (San Francisco, CA) or Grand Hyatt Denver. Whether shopping in the east or west, these packages include great deals like hotel valet parking, retail coupons, gift cards for local stores, free tote bags, late check out, spa discounts, meals, and VIP shopping passes. Packages range in price from $109 to $280 per night.
