A Lakeside courtyard hotel draws on Changsha's bamboo-slip heritage and classical Chinese gardens

CHICAGO (November 28, 2026) – Hyatt Hotels Corporation (NYSE: H) today announced the opening of The NANU Changsha, a 121-room hotel on the shores of Meixi Lake and the newest member of The Unbound Collection by Hyatt. Guests can wander the lakefront, explore contemporary art at Sheen Art Space and discover the regional Hunan flavors at the hotel's restaurants, including Yufurong.

> "At the heart of this hotel a hui-shaped courtyard gathers water, stone and seasonal greenery into a quiet garden retreat. It gives the hotel a distinctive perspective on Changsha and offers guests a place to pause between discovering the city. That individuality is exactly what The Unbound Collection by Hyatt celebrates, and I'm delighted to welcome The NANU Changsha to the collection."

A Story Written in Bamboo and Stone

Changsha's jiandu, the bamboo slips on which its early stories were recorded, inspire the hotel's contemporary design. Bamboo, wood, stone and woven rattan bring a warm, understated expression of Hunan culture to its interiors. The perfect place to explore from, guests can visit Meixi Lake International Culture and Arts Center, stroll the lakefront or venture to Yuelu Mountain and Orange Isle

Rooms and Suites

The hotel's 121 guestrooms and suites range from 538 to 1,270 square feet (50 to 118 square meters), with courtyard, city and lake views. Options include family-friendly guestrooms, spacious suites and premium lake-view residences, each designed to pair contemporary comfort with the quiet of a private garden retreat.

Dining and Wellbeing

Four dining and social venues offer distinct settings. Yu Furong Chinese Restaurant presents a contemporary take on Xiang cuisine, with 14 private dining rooms, an à la carte dining hall and a multifunctional lake-view banquet space. Overmorrow draws on local and global influences for creative cuisine and interactive dining experiences. Xizhu Lobby Bar serves afternoon tea and evening cocktails beside the courtyard, while Moyi Tea Room offers a setting for tea and conversation. The hotel's wellbeing center includes a heated indoor pool, fitness center and spa.

Experiences

Guests can explore Changsha through dining, art, wellbeing and cultural programs tailored to their interests. Sheen Art Space presents rotating exhibitions and creative collaborations that reinterpret local culture through a contemporary lens. Wellbeing offerings include sound healing, Gyrokinesis and traditional Chinese wellness practices. Local activities include Meixi Lake, hikes in Yuelu Mountain and Taohualing, and visits to Changsha's historic neighborhoods. Creative workshops and interactive culinary experiences round out the program.

> "The NANU Changsha was never meant to stand on its own. It is a point of departure on the shores of Meixi Lake, a place to pause and settle in. We hope to rediscover the city's everyday rhythms alongside our guests. A cup of tea, a thoughtfully prepared meal, or a walk by the lake are all moments worth savoring. Through NANU Inspire Navigator and Sheen Art Space, we hope guests will find a deeper connection with Changsha."

About The NANU Changsha

The NANU Changsha is franchised by Hyatt Hotels Corporation to Changsha Sanjing Meixihu Hotel Management Co., Ltd. Growing from the shores of Meixi Lake in Changsha, NANU is an inspirational retreat created for explorers of city life. Rooted in Oriental-inspired aesthetics and the artistry of classical Chinese gardens, and inspired by Changsha's bamboo-slip heritage, NANU weaves natural materials — bamboo, wood, stone and woven rattan — into its spaces, rediscovering Changsha within a courtyard retreat where guests can settle in or set out. The brand's core philosophy is built on discovery as a starting point, locality as the source of content, relationships as the business, and lifestyle as the ultimate expression: moving from providing service to creating discovery, and from operating spaces to shaping a way of life. NANU continuously operates and produces an evolving ecosystem of its own content — spanning Yu Furong, Overmorrow, Sheen Art Space, as well as wellbeing, creative workshops, urban exploration and seasonal programs. NANU is not the end of a journey, but the starting point for discovering another side of Changsha.
