World of Hyatt takes center court with The Player's Box hosts, including brand ambassador Jessica Pegula, for a series of money-can't-buy live podcast recordings, ahead of iconic tennis tournaments in Paris, London, and NYC.

CHICAGO (June 1, 2026) – World of Hyatt is bringing together top-ranked tennis stars and hosts of The Player's Box podcast, Madison Keys, Jennifer Brady and Desirae Krawczyk, and World of Hyatt brand ambassador Jessica Pegula for a series of member-exclusive experiences at major tennis events in Paris, London and NYC. The live recordings of the podcast at various Hyatt hotels across the globe aim to unlock front-row access to the world of tennis.

"We believe the most meaningful travel experiences today are those that create lasting memories and deeper connections," said Katie Casey, Associate Vice President, Global Marketing. "By bringing The Player's Box podcast to our hotels during the world's most iconic tennis moments, World of Hyatt is creating immersive experiences that transcend travel connecting members to the energy, culture and emotion of the sport in ways that simply can't be bought."
