

Scottsdale, Ariz. - (March 18, 2021)— Today, Hyatt Place North Scottsdale and Hyatt House North Scottsdale, Scottsdale's first combined Hyatt Place and Hyatt House hotels, celebrated their openings. Situated in the heart of North Scottsdale near Mayo Clinic Hospital, notable golf courses such as Grayhawk, TPC Scottsdale, and Troon North and premier dining establishments, guests can appreciate the hotels' convenient location. The hotels expand the Hyatt Place and Hyatt House brands' footprint in markets that matter most to guests and World of Hyatt members.

The dual-branded properties feature nearly 2,000 square feet of meeting and event space, open concept public spaces, a 24-hour fitness center, a cozy breakfast area, a stylish bar area and an outdoor swimming pool. The hotels are operated by Evolution Hospitality.

"We're excited to invite guests to enjoy our dual-branded Hyatt Place and Hyatt House hotels in the heart of North Scottsdale," said General Manager Scott Snofsky. "As guests look for a place to recharge on the road, we know they can appreciate the modern design and spacious layout in each guestroom— from the separate areas to sleep and work, including the Cozy Corner at Hyatt Place North Scottsdale, to the apartment-style suites with full kitchens at Hyatt House North Scottsdale. The unique benefit of dual branding is that our guests can choose the space that fits their needs without compromising on location."

"It's a pleasure to be bringing the Hyatt Place and Hyatt House experience to the North Scottsdale market with the opening of these properties," said owner Michael Batt. "This opening is a culmination of exceptional vision and hard work from many parties and is a testament to the standards of excellence we hold ourselves to with every undertaking. We're confident guests will find everything they need to feel at home when they walk through the doors of these new hotels."
