After a year of record-breaking growth, Hyatt maintains its standing as one of the longest-ranking major hospitality companies on prestigious list

CHICAGO (April 4, 2024) – Hyatt Hotels Corporation (NYSE: H) has been recognized as one of the "100 Best Companies to Work For," an annual list of U.S. companies with outstanding workplace cultures according to Fortune and global research and consulting firm, Great Place to Work. Hyatt has earned a spot on this prestigious list for 11 consecutive years, making it one of the longest ranked hospitality brands.

"At Hyatt, we believe in the power of belonging and making people feel at home no matter where they are in the world," said Susan Santiago, President, U.S. and Canada, Hyatt. "We are committed to caring for our colleagues and guests to be their best, and everything we do is through the lens of our purpose of care. This recognition is a testament to how our Hyatt family leads with care, empathy, and integrity to support and enrich the communities in which we operate, as we continue our remarkable growth as a leading hospitality company."

Driven by its core commitment to care and a cultivating a people-first culture, Hyatt is proud to distinguish itself through personalized experiences, wellbeing-focused initiatives, and comprehensive development opportunities, enabling colleagues to thrive. Through its values of empathy, inclusion, integrity, experimentation, respect and wellbeing, Hyatt embraces the individuality of its colleagues, providing a supportive ecosystem for every career milestone.

Deeply embedded across all areas of its business, World of Care is Hyatt's global approach to advancing care for the planet, people, and responsible business. As part of Hyatt's efforts in caring for people and prioritizing inclusion at all levels of its organization, Hyatt's 2025 Change Starts Here commitments outline key diversity, equity and inclusion goals around three areas: who we employ, develop and advance; who we support; and who we buy from and work with.

The 2024 Fortune "100 Best Companies to Work For" recognition adds to a growing list of workplace accolades Hyatt has received, including:
